

A Prayer for Challenging Times

Dear God

I come humbly before You because I am struggling. I do not have the answers. At the moment I feel that there are no options and that is why I am coming to You. I pray that You will move these mountains of resistance in my life and reveal the steps to take to overcome these challenges. Lord I am willing to do the work if You will show me the way.

I ask for forgiveness for all of the people and the circumstances which I have felt negative and angry for including forgiveness for myself. I ask that You will forgive me for my doubts and fears as in this place there is no faith. I ask for forgiveness if I have not truly surrendered to Your love and I stand before You now in a place of pure openness and a desire to overcome this challenge and be a light to someone else going through the same situation.

Thank You for sending me the right people and the right opportunities to overcome this time right now. Thank You for fully equipping me to overcome this situation. I love You God. I thank You Lord. I surrender to Your will and fully commit to knowing that You are with me through this time and always.

Amen
